CCCA Seminar Series

Taking a CRUISE for Your Next Vacation

中文講座 The seminar will be conducted in Chinese

Taking a cruise to see the world is both enjoyable and relaxing. However, the choices and travel logistics can be overwhelming. In this seminar session, we will walk you through the following important steps:

- Where and when to go? What are the attractions?
- How to select a cruise company, cruise ship, and costs.
- Preparations: airline, insurance, packing, etc.
- While you are on the ship, activities, expenses, etc.
- Shore excursions: how to pick the best, how to minimize costs.

Speakers:

Tom Hsiang (項舉劭), Bill Chiang (蔣時亮)

Both Tom and Bill have been travelling extensively around the world during the past 40 years; a lot of business related travels, and many family vacations and cruises. They have travelled to Europe, Asia, Africa, North/South/Central America, Mideast, Australia/New Zealand, and Caribbean, They will share their personal and unbiased experience with you on all aspects of taking a cruise. They will not refer /promote any travel agency or any cruise company.
