Would you like to learn how the City of Thousand Oaks operates? What are the roles played by the Council members? How are the decisions made? What are the future goals?

Join us on April 25

Speaker: Claudia Bill-de la Peña
Mayor of Thousand Oaks

Claudia Bill-de la Peña is a member of Thousand Oaks City Council since 2002 and has served as Mayor of Thousand Oaks for two terms. In her twelve years on the Council, she has fought over-development in the city and protected small businesses. She headed the establishment of the sister cities between Qingdao and Thousand Oaks and co-leads the “Visioning 2064” project to map out the City’s next 50 years.

Claudia was born in Fort Sill, Oklahoma and moved with her family to Germany when she was 2 months old. She speaks English, Germany, Spanish and French. Claudia has been living in Thousand Oaks since 1995 with her husband and twin boys. Claudia wishes to see Thousand Oaks remain safe and healthy for future generations.
